

School Parent Compact Santa Ana High School

Our philosophy is that families, students and school staff collaborate as partners to help each student succeed. This agreement is a promise to work together.

As a Student of Santa Ana High School, I pledge to:

- Be prepared and on time daily, attend all my classes and complete and hand in all course work on time
- Follow the school wide and classroom expectations (Way of the Saints Matrices)
- Demonstrate Acceptance, Integrity, Respect and Responsibility in every life situation
- Monitor my progress in all my courses to ensure that I am academically successful
- Keep track of the number of credits I have earned towards graduation
- Record my daily and long-term assignments in my agenda and discuss with my parents daily what I am learning in school
- Ask for help and go to tutoring whenever I need assistance or if my parents or teachers recommend it
- Get involved in one or more extra-curricular activities
- Read daily
- Care for Chromebook, books and all other materials that are checked out to me, and return them promptly and in good condition

As a Parent I pledge to:

- Become involved in, join, attend and support parent meetings and campus volunteer opportunities, including supervision and classroom observations
- Monitor student progress and talk with my student about what they are learning in school
- Review all progress reports and academic information with my student • Schedule a conference with the teacher or counselor as needed
- Make sure that my child attends all classes daily, is prepared and arrives on time • Provide a quiet study time at home and encourage good study and sleep habits • Require my student to attend tutoring as teacher's request
- Notify school promptly of absences and any change of phone number or mailing address
- Take advantage of all resources offered in the Family Wellness Center
